STANDING WITH CHRIST

In today's first reading from Acts 7:55-60 we learn about the martyrdom of Saint Stephen, the first Christian to ever die in witness to the truth of Jesus Christ.

The scene takes place at the end of a long speech that Stephen had made before the Sanhedrin, Jerusalem's Supreme Court. In his discourse he summarized the entire history of salvation, explaining the Jesus was indeed the long awaited Messiah and rebuking the Sanhedrin for rejecting Christ. In response they fly into a rage against Stephen and that is where today's passage picks up.

We are told that Stephen has the presence of mind to look up to heaven in his moment of need, and because he looks upward instead of inward is granted a vision of Jesus STANDING at the right hand of God. This is interesting, because many times the New Testament describes Jesus at God's right hand, but this is the only time He is standing. In every other instance He is seated. And so in this instance Jesus adopted an active posture and showed Stephen that He is standing with him in this moment of trial and suffering—that He is with him.

In the end, the Stephen's vision did not save him from his enemies' violent anger, nor did it rescue him from suffering. But it did renew his courage and strengthened him to stay true to Christ, the true object of his love, rather than giving into the pressure and denying what he loved.

In many ways the story of Stephen's martyrdom challenges us: that when we are faced with a trial or a suffering or some important choice, we must resist the temptation to turn in on ourselves and force ourselves to look up to Heaven and to Jesus—to recognize that Christ is standing there for us, more than willing to actively get involved in our struggle.

ON MISSION FOR THE CHURCH ALIVE Father, They Are Your Gift To Me In the creation story we are told that God made human beings "in his image." God's hand in our lives doesn't end in creating us. Throughout our lives God gives us purpose and fills us with the gifts we need to fulfill that purpose. The challenge for us is to know ourselves as God knows us, as his gifts in the world to share his light and life with others. He has sent us into the world with a specific task in mind that we might love others and build his kingdom in the Church, making it ever more Alive! Visit onmissionchurchalive.org to stay informed.

Please come and meet Mrs. Stewart, and enjoy the fellowship of your parishioners.
